PROFIL M

Transforming businesses one HR strategy at a time, with a focus on people and performance.

Bringing over 16 years of hands-on experience in Human Resources, I have been committed to transforming businesses through strategic HR interventions. My experience spans across various facets of HR, including talent acquisition, organizational development, and talent management, where I have leveraged my skills to drive HR initiatives that align with business objectives.

As a former Country Manager at Raytheon's Automotive Education division, I understand the unique challenges and opportunities presented by the automotive industry. This experience has enabled me to provide targeted solutions that address the specific needs of organizations within this sector.

I am passionate about people development, believing that effective human resource management is the key to unlocking an organization's potential. My approach is characterized by a strong focus on understanding the specific needs of my clients, and providing innovative and sustainable solutions.

My expertise for you

- With an MBA in Human Resource Management, I bring a strategic outlook to HR.
- My robust experience across diverse industries enables me to implement effective HR strategies that align with the overall business objectives.
- In the past, I have worked with an array of multinational corporations and SMEs in diverse sectors.
- These include Nissan, Kia, EON, Fluenta, AON, P3 Parks, Opel, Chevrolet, Energy, SKANSKA, Greyson, Buhler, among others

Special skills

- In addition to my practical experience in HR, I am also a proficient multilingual professional with fluency in English and Spanish.
- This enables me to effectively communicate with a diverse range of stakeholders and clients across different cultural backgrounds.
- My MBA in Human Resources equips me with a thorough understanding of human behavior within the organizational context.
